[illegible]OLD ARRIVES IN EGYPT

[illegible] - CAIRO, Egypt, December 1956 -

Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD came to Egypt last month to discuss with the Egyptian government questions concerning the presence and functioning of the United Nations Emergency Force (UNEF). He is shown here reviewing a contingent of Danish and Norwegian troops of UNEF upon his arrival at Abu Suweir airport on November 17th. These troops, which were the first UNEF sent to the Middle East, had arrived in Egypt two days before. Abu Suweir is the staging area of the U.N. Force in Egypt.

HAMMARSKJOLD MEETS EGYPTIAN PRESIDENT

UN 53628 - CAIRO, Egypt, December 1956 -
Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD (left) and Egyptian President Gamal Abdel NASSER photographed during the talks they held in Cairo last month.
In the course of these conversations, the Egyptian government asked for U.N. help in clearing the Suez Canal and requested that this help start immediately upon the re-establishment of normal conditions in Port Said and the Canal area, including the withdrawal of non-Egyptian forces. Other subjects discussed concerned the presence and functionning of the U.N. Emergency Force.
