Governor Arab Jerusalem invites you to attend Christmas Mass in Bethlehem. I indicated your rapid journey to Gaza made your acceptance unlikely. He however expects definite answer from you tonight or tomorrow. Please advise.

Wish you, General Burns and his staff Merry Christmas.

Secretary-General warmly appreciates Governor's invitation to visit Bethlehem and would have very much liked to accept but finds that programme already arranged and announced makes such visit impossible at this stage. SecGen asks you, when explaining this to the Governor and thanking him most sincerely for his invitation, to transmit also SecGen's warmest personal regards and good wishes.
