RELEASE BY UNITED KINGDOM FOREIGN OFFICE ON VISIT OF UN SECRETARY-GENERAL TO LONDON

(The following, received here from the UN Information Center in London, was released to the press by the News Department of the Foreign Office in London at 12:30 p.m. London time or 7:30 a.m. EST today.)

Mr. Dag Hammarskjold, the Secretary-General of the United Nations, as has already been announced, will be visiting the United Kingdom as the guest of Her Majesty's Government at the end of March. He is expected to arrive on March 30 and to leave on April 2 or 3. He will be having talks with members of Her Majesty's Government in the course of his visit.

On March 31 Mr. Hammarskjold will be entertained to luncheon by the Foreign Secretary, and that evening he will attend a performance of the ballet at the Royal Opera House, Covent Garden, as guest of the Minister of State for Foreign Affairs, Commander Allan Noble.

Mr. Hammarskjold will be received by H.M. The Queen on April 1, and entertained to luncheon at Windsor Castle. A dinner in his honour will be given by the Prime Minister that evening at No. 10 Downing Street, followed by a reception by Her Majesty's Government at Lancaster House.

On April 2 Mr. Hammarskjold will be entertained to luncheon by the United Nations Association, and that afternoon he will address a meeting of members of both Houses of Parliament under the auspices of the British group of the Inter-Parliamentary Union.
