D. H. trips 1958. April 17

Sec. Gen. — to Brigadier G.A.C. Macnab (Government Hospitality Fund, London)

17 April 1958

Dear Brigadier Macnab,

I have written formal letters of thanks to representatives of H.M. Government in connection with my recent official visit. I would, however, like to add this personal note of thanks to you for all that you and members of your staff did to make me and all members of my party so very much at home in London. There was just no way in which one could have wanted arrangements improved. In particular, we appreciated the very personal interest that you took in all arrangements.

With kind regards and renewed thanks,

Dag Hammarskjöld

Brigadier G.A.C. Macnab, C.B., C.M.G.,
Secretary, Government Hospitality Fund,
London.
