Dear Mr Hammerskjold,

Many thanks

for your letter of 21st April.

I shall in due course
invite Mr George Ivan Smith
and Mr. William J. Ranallo
to the Honorary Degree
Luncheon on June 5th.

Yours sincerely

J. Davidson.

Dear Mr. Hammarskjöld,

I shall shortly be sending out invitations for a Luncheon to be given in the College Hall on 5th June, 1958, for the recipients of Honorary Degrees. The heads of the Cambridge Colleges and various University officials and the Fellows of Trinity College will be invited to the Luncheon. The wives of the other Honorary graduands will be invited; so also will the wives of the other persons attending the Luncheon, and I would be grateful to know if you would like to nominate a lady relative for invitation. If so, could you let me know the name of the lady and the address to which the invitation should be sent?

Yours sincerely,

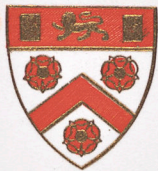

J. F. Davidson.

Dear Mr. Davidson,

Thank you for your letter of 15 April. I shall not invite a lady relative for the Luncheon to be given in the College Hall on June 5th, 1958.

I would, however, like to take this opportunity to inform you that, at the Congregation, I shall be accompanied by Mr. George Ivan Smith, Director of the United Nations Information Centre in London, and by Mr. William J. Renallo, my Personal Aide.

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjöld.
