SUBJECT: Discussion with David Blickenstaff regarding Belgian visit

I talked to David as promised regarding the visit to Belgium. We finally concluded that the program should be kept within the two and a half days, the 25th, 26th and the morning of the 27th. The Fair people, especially Fast, wanted you to spend the whole day of the 26th at the Fair but David and I agreed that it would be much better to cut the Fair attendance to a half day which would be quite ample, and use the other half of the day either for one or two of the Government events or one of the University events. By better utilization of the 26th, David felt that the whole program, without the cancellation of the Brussels and the Louvain ceremonies, could be worked out satisfactorily. He will work along these lines unless advised otherwise.
