SECRETARY-GENERAL DAG HAMMARSKJOLD

LEAVES BEIRUT FOR AMMAN

(The following was received from a UN Information Officer with UNOGIL, Beirut.)

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold, who left New York on Monday, 25 August, for the Middle East, arrived with his party in Beirut yesterday, 26 August, at 9:45 p.m., local time. They were received at the airport by Edouard Ghorra, Director of Political Affairs and International Relations in the Lebanese Foreign Ministry, and by other officials.

Later, the Secretary-General conferred with members and senior officials of the United Nations Observation Group in Lebanon (UNOGIL) at UNOGIL headquarters in Beirut.

This morning, the Secretary-General and his party went on to Amman, accompanied by Major General Carl C. von Horn, Chief of Staff of the United Nations Truce Supervision Organization in Palestine. They traveled in General von Horn's plane, leaving Beirut at 9:15 a.m., local time.

At the airport for the Secretary-General's departure were Raymond Heneine, protocol official in the Lebanese Foreign Ministry; Abdul Hamid Siraj, Jordanian Minister in Beirut; and members of UNOGIL.
