

Trips: Trips - 24

HS L 179:74

Dag Hammarskjöld's samt.

Sec. Gen's trip to Middle East 1958

Jan. 4 (59)

"Hammarskjöld Continues Tour"

— N. York Herald Tribune

Hammar skjold Continues Tour

Associated Press

Dag Hammarskjold, U. N. Secretary General, peeling a radish while dining Friday with Israeli Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion in the communal dining hall in the settlement of Sde Boker. Mr. Hammarskjold is now in Jordan for talks with King Hussein.

From the Herald Tribune Bureau

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y., Jan. 3. — Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold, now at Amman, conferred for several hours today with King Hussein of Jordan and Premier Samir el-Rifai. According to a communique issued here, topics at the talks included the Palestine Arab refugees and the long-sought free access for Israelis through their Jerusalem enclave on Mount Scopus, the site of Hadassah Hospital and Hebrew University.