Excellency,

May I from New York thank you once again for the courtesy and hospitality extended to me by your Government and yourself personally during my recent visit to Lebanon.

I was, of course, very glad to have the opportunity of calling on the President and the Prime Minister. I recall with pleasure the lunch very kindly offered to me, where I had the occasion to meet other members of the Government and leading personalities in Beirut.

Accept, Excellency, the assurances of my high consideration.

Dag Hammarskjöld
Secretary-General

His Excellency
Mr. Haje Hussein El Queini
Minister for Foreign Affairs
