2 August 1961

STATEMENT ON RETURN OF AMBASSADOR DE RIBBING TO BUREIMI AREA

The following statement was read by a spokesman for Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold at United Nations Headquarters today:

As may be recalled, the Secretary-General, at the request of the Governments of Saudi Arabia and the United Kingdom, last year assigned Ambassador Herbert de Ribbing (Sweden) to assist the two governments in clarification on the spot of certain problems related to the so-called "Bureimi Question."

In fulfillment of his task, Ambassador de Ribbing paid a preliminary visit to the area last year. It has now been agreed that he could usefully proceed to the next stage of his work and he will, therefore, in the near future undertake a further tour to the area in execution of the task entrusted to him.
