LICROSS, GENEVA

URGENT

Noting from newspaper reports that representatives of the International Red Cross were present yesterday at the incident at Sakiet-Sidi-Youssef in Tunisia and that therefore you are likely to receive impartial firsthand reports on the incident itself and the findings made after the incident, I wish to ask whether you would be in a position to provide me with the official information of which you may or will be in possession concerning the observations of your representatives.

Dag Hammarskjöld,
Secretary-General of the United Nations.
