Trip to South America 1959

June 8

Sec. Gen. — to Francisco Negro de Lima (Minister of State for External Relations, Brazil)

8 June 1959

Your Excellency,

I want to thank you for your letter of 21 May in which you extend to me a cordial invitation to visit your country. I hope that I shall be able to avail myself of the privilege of accepting your invitation sometime in late summer, likely during the month of August, if problems requiring my attention do not interfere.

I shall be glad to discuss the final arrangements with regard to the time and duration of my trip with Ambassador Cyro de Freitas-Valle.

I look forward to the visit to your country and to the contact with you and your colleagues in your Government with high satisfaction.

Accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dag Hammarskjöld

His Excellency
Mr. Francisco Negro de Lima
Minister of State for External Relations
C/o The Brazilian Mission to the United Nations
