21st October, 1959.

DC/430.1(04)(42)

His Excellency Mr. Dag Hammarskjold,
Secretary-General of The United Nations,
New-York.

Upon my return from my vacations, it was extremely gratifying to me to read the letter you were so kind as to send me with regard to the arrangements for your visit to Brazil early last month.

Both I and my colleagues in Protocol were deeply honoured by your appreciative references to our participation in your visit. May I say, Excellency, that we all deemed it a privilege to have been associated with such a remarkable occasion.

I avail myself of this opportunity to present to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

Dear Mr. de Vicenzi,

I would like to thank you for the care and attention which you gave to the arrangements for my visit to Brazil. I am aware that it was not an easy task and that the demands made on you, both in Rio de Janeiro and Sao Paulo, required a great deal of planning. May I say that the programme was, from my point of view, very satisfactory. I only regret that I was unable to complete it.

May I also express my appreciation of the special courtesy that was shown to me and my party by your colleagues, to whom I would be grateful if you would convey my good wishes.

Sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjöld
