

Trips: Trips - 24

HS L 179:76b

Dag Hammarskjöld's samt.

Trip to South America 1959

Sept. 17

Moracio Lafer (Minister for Foreign Affairs, Brazil)

— to Sec. Gen.

My I once again tell you of the pleasure and honour it was for us here to have you as our guest. It was indeed a pity your departure had forced you to shorten your visit here.

My wife joins me in tendering you our sincerest thanks for the excellent gift you have sent us and hopes to oblige us with.

In anticipating the pleasure of seeing you again in the near future,

I remain

Very sincerely yours

Moracio Lafer

September 17 th, 1959.

Mr. Dag Hammarskjold
Secretary-General of the United Nations
New York.

Mister Secretary-General,

May I once again tell you of the pleasure and honour it was for us brazilians to have you as our guest. It was indeed a pity your important duties forced you to shorten your visit among us.

My wife joins me in sending you our sincerest thanks for the exquisite gift your were kind enough to oblige us with.

In anticipating the pleasure of seing you again, in the near future,

I remain

Very sincerely yours

Horacio Lafer