Sec. Gen's talks with President Eisenhower

L 179: 76a

WASHINGTON, May 22--(AP)--President Eisenhower conferred at breakfast today with Dag Hammarskjold, Secretary-General of the United Nations.

After the hour-long session at the White House Hammarskjold declined to tell newsmen what he and Eisenhower discussed.

"Private talks are private talks, whether at breakfast or at dinner," the U.N. official said with a smile.

A reporter asked whether Hammarskjold feels there is any change the U.N. will be injected into the Berlin crisis in any way. He replied that situation "is very wait-and-seeish." He referred newsmen to what he had to say on the general matter at a New York news conference yesterday.

Hammarskjold said at that time that it would be basically unsound from the U.N. point of view to put a U.N. force in Berlin.

There have been suggestions that such a force, similar in some respects to the emergency force in the Middle East, might be employed in connection with a four-power agreement on the problem of the divided German city.

Hammarskjold said there would be difficulties, for instance, in recruiting a U.N. garrison for Berlin. He restated his view that the Middle East force is not primarily military.

With Eisenhower and Hammarskjold at breakfast were Henry Cabot Lodge, U.N. Ambassador to the UN, and Under Secretary of State C. Douglas Dillon.
