

Speeches, statements and press conference by Dag Hammar skjöld concerning Mi...

HS L 179:128

National Library of Sweden

Dag Hammarskjöld's samt.

Middle East

23 Nov. 56

Statement by D.H. in the General
Assembly plenary meeting.

Statement by the S/G before the G/A
morning meeting 23 November 56

The four reports I have put before the Assembly cover the first phase of the UN efforts after the adoption by the General Assembly of its basic resolutions. Some progress in implementation is registered. Some new steps have to be taken. In my actions in implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly, I have, to the best of my understanding, neither added anything to the position of the General Assembly, nor detracted anything from that position. I have been guided by the fact that the United Nations, in requesting a cessation of hostilities and withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt, rejected the resort to force as a means to any of the proclaimed aims.

Statement by the S/G before the G/A
morning meeting 23 November 56

The four reports I have put before the Assembly cover the first phase of the UN efforts after the adoption by the General Assembly of its basic resolutions. Some progress in implementation is registered. Some new steps have to be taken. In my actions in implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly, I have, to the best of my understanding, neither added anything to the position of the General Assembly, nor detracted anything from that position. I have been guided by the fact that the United Nations, in requesting a cessation of hostilities and withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt, rejected the resort to force as a means to any of the proclaimed aims.

21. XI. 56. G. A.

The four reports I have put before the Assembly cover the first phase of the UN efforts after the adoption by the General Assembly of its basic resolutions. Some progress in implementation is registered. Some new steps have to be taken. In my actions in implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly, I have, to the best of my understanding, neither added anything to the position of the General Assembly, nor detracted anything from that position. I have been guided by the fact that the United Nations, in requesting a cessation of hostilities and withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt, rejected the resort to force as a means to any of the proclaimed aims.

Statement by the S/G before the G/A
morning meeting 23 November 56

The four reports I have put before the Assembly cover the first phase of the UN efforts after the adoption by the General Assembly of its basic resolutions. Some progress in implementation is registered. Some new steps have to be taken. In my actions in implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly, I have, to the best of my understanding, neither added anything to the position of the General Assembly, nor detracted anything from that position. I have been guided by the fact that the United Nations, in requesting a cessation of hostilities and withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt, rejected the resort to force as a means to any of the proclaimed aims.

UNITED NATIONS
Department of Public Information
Press and Publications Division
United Nations, N. Y.

(For use of information media--not an official record)

Press Release SG/537
23 November 1956

STATEMENT BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL ON THE MIDDLE EAST
SITUATION IN THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY PLENARY MEETING, 23 NOVEMBER 1956

The four reports I have put before the Assembly cover the first phase of the UN efforts after the adoption by the General Assembly of its basic resolutions. Some progress in implementation is registered. Some new steps have to be taken. In my actions in implementation of the resolutions of the General Assembly, I have, to the best of my understanding, neither added anything to the position of the General Assembly, nor detracted anything from that position. I have been guided by the fact that the United Nations, in requesting a cessation of hostilities and withdrawal of foreign troops from Egypt, rejected the resort to force as a means to any of the proclaimed aims.

* *** *