AUSTRALIA DEPOSITS ACCESSION TO CONVENTION ON STATUS OF REFUGEES

UN 42368 - UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., 22 Jan. 1954 -

Here, this afternoon, Australia took the final action needed to bring the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees into force under international law on 22 April. William D. FORSYTH (right), Australia's Permanent Representative to the U.N., deposited his Government's instrument of accession to the Convention with U.N. Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD (left). As a result, the Convention will come into force, after 90 days, in his country and in Belgium, Denmark, the German Federal Republic, Luxembourg and Norway, which previously have ratified it.

The Convention, which was adopted at a 26-nation U.N. conference in Geneva in July 1951, establishes minimum rights for refugees under the mandate of the U.N. High Commissioner for Refugees, including the right to asylum, to work, to education, to public relief and to freedom of religion; it also establishes a procedure for issuance of travel documents to refugees.

Today's ceremony was recorded over U.N. radio facilities.

SIR EDMUND HILLARY AT U.N. HEADQUARTERS

UN 42432 - UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., 28 Jan. 1954 -

Sir Edmund HILLARY, a New Zealander, one of the two "Conquerors of Everest," and three other members of last year's Himalayan expedition, today paid a visit to United Nations Headquarters. This picture shows Mr. Dag HAMMARSKJÖLD (left), Secretary-General of the U.N., shaking hands with Sir Edmund.

Mr. Hammarskjöld is an enthusiastic mountaineer himself; Sir Edmund said that, after lecturing in Sweden and learning of the climbing facilities in Lapland, he particularly enjoyed talking with him. "He knows a lot about it," he added.
