August 2, 1955

Dear Dag:

I send you my most sincere congratulations upon the release of the eleven additional United States Air Force prisoners by Communist China. You and you alone were the major cause of this action, and I want to add my gratification to those of the President in his statement made when the news was received in this country.

Please don't bother to answer this note but rest assured that this action does more to enhance the prestige of the United Nations in this country than any event since the Korean War.

With warm personal regards.

Cordially yours,

Preston Hotchkis

Dear Preston,

I thank you most warmly for your letter of 2 August regarding the release of the eleven additional fliers. I am very gratified with the result even though it took rather more time than I had hoped.

I trust that you and Mrs. Hotchkis may drop in on us again when you are in New York.

With warm personal regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjöld
