Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

I have been instructed by my Prime Minister and Minister for Foreign Affairs to convey to you his sincere congratulations on the success of your patient and pertinacious efforts to secure the release from prison in China of the eleven United States airmen.

Mr. Sharett especially asked me to inform you of his conviction that the happy outcome of the delicate mission which the General Assembly entrusted to you has made a contribution of profound significance to the cause of peace and security in the world.

Believe me, Mr. Secretary-General, to be
