PERSONAL

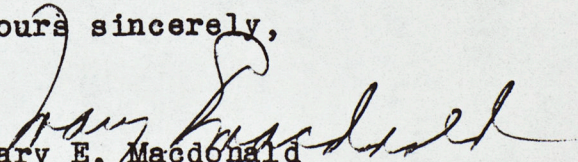

Dear Mr. Hammarskjold,

Your letter of August 13, addressed to Mr. Pearson, arrived just after he left Ottawa for his Riding and Western Canada. I will, however, be glad to send it to him at the first opportunity. He is not expected back in Ottawa until Labour Day weekend and therefore you may not hear from him yourself until after that.

I know Mr. Pearson would like to have an opportunity to see you in New York before he leaves on his Eastern trip but at the moment his itinerary has not been set and so we are not just sure how much time he will have in September. He may not even have a chance to attend the Assembly this Fall.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Mary E. Macdonald
