Dear Humphrey,

Warm thanks for your greetings and for the Chinese flowers which I found delightful. May I send you all my best wishes for the New Year and express again my hope for a chance to work together with you for a purpose, the vital significance of which we both can recognize.

We have just passed the anniversary of the voyage to China. This gives me an occasion to thank you again for all your assistance during that shared experience. Looking back over the year the success of that experiment stands out as one of those miracles for which one has always to remain very grateful.

Your colleagues and friends from the Peking-trip join me in sending their warm regards.
