4th January 1961

D. Hammarskjold, Esq.,
United Nations Secretary General,
United Nations,
New York, U.S.A.

Dear Mr. Hammarskjold,

I just wish to thank you for your last letter and I wish you a very happy New Year.

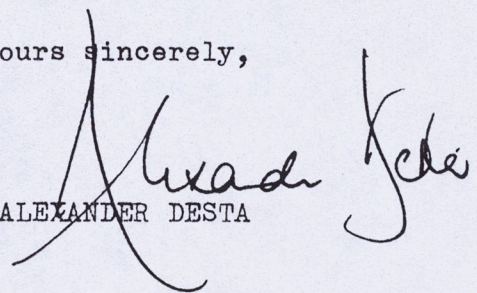

I have conveyed your ideas to His Majesty; we did send a delegation to Brazaville a few weeks ago. He will, however, be waiting for certain conditions to settle down in the Congo.

As you know, we have an officer on the good-will mission which came from your bureau in New York and I hope that, combined with our press officer in Leopoldville, we will be of some political use to the stability of the area.

I hope this letter arrives in time before you visit the Congo.

I wish to thank you for your advice and hope that good fortune will follow you through 1961.

Yours sincerely,

ALEXANDER DESTA
