EMBASSY OF ICELAND
WASHINGTON 8, D. C.

April 6, 1961

My dear Secretary General:

Allow me to express on behalf of Mrs. Thors and myself our thanks and appreciation for your kind invitation to the luncheon you gave in honor of the Prime Minister of Sweden, Mr. Tage Erlander, last Thursday. We both felt honored to attend and enjoyed very much your hospitality and the fine company.

May I also personally take this opportunity to congratulate you on your strong and excellent statement in the General Assembly yesterday, wherein you devastated the unfounded and unfair criticism leveled against you recently in connection with your firm and sensible direction of the United Nations activities in the Congo under the most difficult circumstances.

With kind personal regards.

Sincerely,

H.E. Dag Hammarskjöld
Secretary General
United Nations
New York, N.Y.
