REPORT OF THE TRUSTEESHIP COUNCIL

Assistance to Territories emerging from a Trust status and newly independent States
AFGHANISTAN, CEYLON, CZECHOSLOVAKIA, PAKISTAN
AND United States of America: revised draft resolution

The General Assembly,

Welcoming the forthcoming independence of the Trust Territories of the Cameroons under French administration, Togoland under French administration and Somaliland under Italian administration during 1960,

Recalling the basic objectives of the Trusteeship System as set forth in Article 76 of the Charter of the United Nations,

Recognizing the many problems with which the emerging Trust Territories must inevitably be faced upon their attainment of independence, particularly in the economic and social fields,

Desiring that all possible aid in the field of technical assistance be available from the existing facilities in the United Nations to those emerging Trust Territories which might request it,

Invites the Secretary-General to give urgent and sympathetic consideration, without prejudice in any way to present assistance given to other Member States of the United Nations, to all requests which he might receive to provide Territories emerging from a Trust status or newly independent States with:
(a) such high-level technical experts as they might desire; and (b) all other forms of technical aid required by the special circumstances under which they have acceded to independence.
