My dear Dag,

I wanted to write to you personally to say how very helpful the United Nations staff have been to us during our Conference here and how very efficiently they carried out their duties. We are most grateful to you for letting us make use of the United Nations facilities.

It is of course a disappointment that we have not reached a positive agreement here, but I do feel that there has been a great reduction in tension and we are now moving to another stage in East-West contacts which in itself represents a major development.

I much look forward to seeing you again and having a talk with you when I am in New York for the General Assembly.

*Yours
Lester*

His Excellency Mr. Dag Hammarskjold
