

Dag Hammarskjöld som FN:s generalsekreterare - samling av fotografier - 1

HS L 179 248/18: 373-380

National Library of Sweden

(GA:15:IN)

FIFTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

UN 66929 -

United Nations, N. Y., 20 September 1960

An unprecedented number of high officials will attend the 1960 session of the General Assembly which opened in New York today at United Nations Headquarters. The Assembly has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history.

Here, shortly before the opening of the first meeting, UN Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD (right) is seen chatting with members of the United Kingdom delegation - from the left, the Rt. Hon. the Earl of HOME, Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs of the U.K.; Mr. Harold BEELEY, Deputy Permanent Representative to the UN; and Sir Patrick DEAN, Permanent Representative to the UN.

Please credit: UNITED NATIONS

MB/vb/gf

373 : 81/817 6417

(GA:15:PL)

FIFTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

UN 66943 -

United Nations, N. Y. 20 September 1960

An unprecedented number of high officials will attend the 1960 session of the General Assembly which opened in New York today at United Nations Headquarters. The Assembly has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history.

Here is a general view of the opening meeting in session in the Assembly Hall.

Please credit: UNITED NATIONS

/vb/gf

hts: 81/8hz bt17

(GA:15:MISC)

FIFTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

UN 67001

- United Nations, N. Y., 20 September 1960

An unprecedented number of high officials will attend the 1960 session of the General Assembly which opened in New York today at United Nations Headquarters. The Assembly has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history.

Here, ballots are being cast for the President of the 15th session. The session was opened by the President of the 14th session, Dr. V. A. Belaunde of Peru (Centre).

Please credit: United Nations

SL/vmb

STC 1581/848 bt17

L179 248/18:376

(GA:15:PL)

FIFTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

UN 66927 -

United Nations, N. Y., 20 September 1960

An unprecedented number of high officials will attend the 1960 session of the General Assembly which opened in New York today at United Nations Headquarters. The Assembly has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history.

Here is a general view of the opening meeting in session.

Please credit: UNITED NATIONS

SL/vb/gf

L179 248/18:9377

(GA:15:MISC)

FIFTEENTH REGULAR SESSION OF UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY OPENS

UN 67277 - UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., 20 September 1960

An unprecedented number of high officials will attend the 1960 session of the General Assembly which opened in New York today at United Nations Headquarters. The Assembly has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history. This photograph shows Dr. Luis PADILLA NERVO (lower, left), of Mexico, depositing his vote for Assembly President. Seated at the presidential rostrum are (left to right): Un Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD; Temporary President, Dr. Victor Andres BELAUNDE (Peru), the President of the 14th session of the Assembly; and Mr. Andrew W. CORDIER, Executive Assistant to the Secretary-General. Mr. Frederick H. Boland (Ireland), was elected President for this session of the Assembly.

Please credit: UNITED NATIONS

/vb/gf

(GA:15:PRE)

13 AFRICAN STATES AND CYPRUS ADMITTED TO UN

UN 67079

- United Nations, N. Y., 21 September 1960

As one of its first acts, the 15th regular session of the UN General Assembly, which opened in New York yesterday, unanimously admitted 14 new States to membership in the United Nations. This brings the total number of States members of the UN to 96, almost double its original membership.

Seen here during the meeting are UN Secretary-General Dag HAMMAR-SKJOLD and Mr. Frederick H. BOLAND (Ireland), newly-elected President of the General Assembly (rt).

I-2256/4

Please credit: United Nations

YN/vmb

8494:81/847 6417
1179 248/18:378

(GA:15:PRE)

13 AFRICAN STATES AND CYPRUS ADMITTED TO UN

UN 67064

- United Nations, N.Y., 21 September 1960

As one of its first acts, the 15th regular session of the UN General Assembly, which opened in New York yesterday, unanimously admitted 14 new States to membership in the United Nations. This brings the total number of States members of the UN to 96, almost double its original membership.

Seen here, on the podium, prior to the meeting are Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD and Mr. Frederick H. BOLAND (Ireland), newly-elected President of the Assembly.

L-2254/19

Please credit: United Nations

ME/vmb

6t8 : 81/847 6t17

(GA:15:MISC)

UN GENERAL ASSEMBLY CONTINUES GENERAL DEBATE

UN 67196 - United Nations, N.Y., 28 September 1960 -

The General Assembly, now holding its 15th regular session, continued general debate today. An unprecedented number of high officials are attending this session which has before it an 87-item provisional agenda, the longest in its history.

Seen here as he presided over this morning's plenary meeting of the Assembly is Ambassador Carlos SOSA-RODRIGUEZ*(nearest camera), of Venezuela. Seated beside him is U.N. Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD.

*Chairman of the Delegation of Venezuela and a Vice-President of the General Assembly.

Please credit : UNATIONS

MB/VB—b

0889:81/8ht 6t17