U.S. CONGRESSMEN VISIT U.N. HEADQUARTERS

UN 40344 - UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., 11 May 1953 -

Eighty United States Congressmen and their families visited the United Nations yesterday, during a week end tour of New York. The U.N. visit began soon after 9 a.m. with a buffet breakfast in the Delegates' Lounge, a greeting from U.N. Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld, and a tour of the Conference and General Assembly buildings. A conference with Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., U.S. Representative to the U.N., ended the visit.
