SECRETARY-GENERAL PRESENTS TROPHY TO WINNER OF GOLF COMPETITION

UN 42162 - UNITED NATIONS, N.Y., 22 December 1953 -

U.N. Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJÖLD (left) congratulates Mr. E. G. MOORE (right) after presenting him with a trophy as winner of the U.N. Golf Club's competition this year. Standing beside the Secretary-General is Mr. Constantin STAVROPOULOS, this year's runner-up. At centre is Mr. A. J. STIERHOUT, President of the U.N. Golf Club, who is holding the Eichwald Trophy on which the name of each year's winner is inscribed. This trophy becomes the permanent property of the first competitor to win three annual contests. Mr. Moore has won two, so far.
