FOREIGN MINISTERS AT THE U.N. 10th ANNIVERSARY SESSION

UN 46154 - SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., 20 June 1955 -

All the sixty U.N. Member Nations are now assembled in San Francisco to honor the United Nations in the city where the Charter was signed ten years ago; more than half are represented by their foreign ministers. Today's meeting inaugurated a week-long programme of anniversary observance which will culminate on June 26, the day when the Charter of the United Nations was signed in 1945.
