U.N. SECRETARY-GENERAL IN MOSCOW

UN 50426 - MOSCOW, U.S.S.R., 5 July 1956 -

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjöld is now in Moscow, where he arrived last Monday evening, 2 July. Since his arrival, he has been received by a number of high Soviet officials; he also went sightseeing in the Kremlin and at other points of interest. He and his party will leave tomorrow morning for Minsk, capital of Byelorussia. Here is a photograph of Mr. HAMMARSKJÖLD (right) on the Red Square with Mr. Ilya S. TCHERNYCHEV, Under-Secretary of the United Nations.
