MRS. ROOSEVELT APPROACHES HER 75th BIRTHDAY

L 179 248/16: 341a

NEW YORK -- Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt and United Nations Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold were principal speakers at the tenth anniversary observance of the UN Universal Declaration of Human Rights, held here on December 9, 1958. Mrs. Roosevelt, a member of the United States delegation to the UN from 1943-1953, was chairman of the Commission on Human Rights and considers her work with that group "the most important thing" she has ever done. (Photo No. 59-565. Accompanies Feature F-59-317.)

UN SECRETARY-GENERAL TO ATTEND OPENING OF UN ECONOMIC COMMISSION FOR AFRICA

UN 59842

- ADDIS ABABA, Ethiopia, 28 December 1958

UN Secretary-General Dag HAMMARSKJOLD is seen here (left) as he arrived at Addis Ababa airport this morning. He is being welcomed by the Minister of the Imperial Court H.E. Tsahafi Teezaz Tafarra Work KIDANE WOLD (shaking hands with Mr. Hammarskjold); and Foreign Minister H.E. Ato Ylma DERESSA (behind, hat in hand).

Mr. Hammarskjold is in Addis Ababa to attend the first session of the new UN Regional Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), which will open in the parliament building in Addis Ababa tomorrow. The Commission, the fourth of its kind to be set up by the United Nations, will provide a focal point where the economic needs of the African people can be expressed and where action to meet them can be initiated and stimulated.
