REPRESENTATION OF THE UNITED NATIONS
AT INTER-AMERICAN CONFERENCES

The Ninth International Conference of American States

ADOPTS the recommendations submitted to it by the Governing Board of the Pan American Union with regard to representation of the United Nations at Inter-American Conferences and Meetings of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs, and with regard to the participation of international organizations in Inter-American Specialized Conferences; and

RESOLVES:

1. That in each case the United Nations shall be invited to be represented at Inter-American Conferences and Meetings of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs by its Secretary-General, or by an alternate in the event that the Secretary-General is unable to attend in person, in order that the Members of the world organization may be kept informed as to the work and the conclusions of those conferences.

2. That, when it is deemed desirable to request that Inter-American Specialized Organizations, international organizations not part of the Organization of American States, or governments not Members thereof, attend Inter-American Specialized Conferences, the Council of the Organization shall have the authority to take a decision in that respect. In such cases, participation may be requested by any Member of the Council or may be proposed by the organ of the Council or the Specialized Organization responsible for preparing the program and regulations of the Conference.
