

Trips: Trips - 36

HS L 179:64

Dag Hammarskjöld's saml.

Trip to Sthlm/London 1954

Feb. 9

D. H. - to William Walton Butterworth Jr.

(Ambassador, American Embassy, London)

Dear Sir: For your letter of 1 February. It was a pleasure to get news from you and Virginia.

Thanks especially for the most interesting account of your recent group visit to London. My wife happened to be heading the group at the 17th, in a handsome big flat. It seems that I would have to leave on the 17th and I cannot arrive in London before the 18th. The subject time does not permit of what else would be done at the 17th or lunch at the 18th. Please would you let us know what you suggest.

Looking forward to seeing you again.

Mr. Embassy
Ambassador William Walton Butterworth Jr.
American Embassy
London

9 February 1954

Warm thanks for your letter of 1 February. It was a pleasure to get news from you and Virginia.

Thanks especially for the kind invitation to come to your home on my next visit to London. My only engagement so far besides the dinner on the 18th, is a luncheon on the 17th. I guess that I would have to leave on the 19th and I cannot arrive in London before the 16th. The safest time from my point of view thus would be dinner on the 17th or lunch on the 18th. Please would you let me know what you suggest.

Looking forward to seeing you again,

His Excellency
Ambassador William Walton Butterworth Jr.
American Embassy
London