Trip to California / Chicago / Minneapolis 1954

May 20

D. H. - to Prof. Thomas C. Blaisdell, Jr (Dept. of Political Science, University of California)

20 May 1954

Dear Tom,

I found your letter awaiting me when I returned to Headquarters last night. It was a most enjoyable and stimulating experience for me to visit the University of California and to speak to the large and responsive gathering which you brought together on the campus. I am glad that on your side also the impression was favourable.

You and your colleagues were most friendly and thoughtful hosts and my only regret is that I did not have more time to be with you. But I brought away so many pleasant memories, including those unforgettable moments among the Redwoods in the Muir Woods, that you may be sure I shall be paying a return visit at some future date.

Please also convey my thanks and special regards to Professor Condliffe. I will reply to his kind letter as soon as I find time.
