returning to public duties, and I hope, the devotion of considerable time to the U.N.

Again, my thanks, and I hope you will understand.

Yours most gratefully and sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hammarskjold,

I am very flattered indeed that you have repeated last year's invitation to me to appear as Master of Ceremonies at the Staff Night in the General Assembly Hall.

Unfortunately for me, the date again falls at a time when it is beyond my ability to accept. I am about to start on a brief holiday, in about ten days, when I shall go to Spain, and then on both a government and private mission to Turkey. I return to England to work, in late August, and will be going to New York only at the end of October, for about a week or ten days.

It appears that on September 10th I will be in the midst of filming, and therefore cannot break away. If, however, there is a change between now and August, I will send you and Clark Eichelberger a cable.

I only have one more season of work under this heavy pressure, after which I have every intention of
