TO: The United Nations Singers
FROM: The Director
SUBJECT: APPEARANCE OF SINGERS AT ATLANTIC CITY -- Tuesday 25 May 1954

WE HAVE BEEN INVITED TO APPEAR at the National Convention of Parents and Teachers at Atlantic City, New Jersey, on Tuesday evening, 25 May 1954. There will be approximately 1,000 to 1,500 people present and we have been asked to present the program on the auditorium stage of the Convention Hall Ballroom which means we shall have to count on AT LEAST 30 MEMBERS TO BE PRESENT.

Program: We have been asked to appear as United Nations guests for the program at which Mr. Benjamin Cohen will speak.

Transportation: Round-trip transportation by bus has already been planned. We shall leave Headquarters on Tuesday around 4:00-4:30 p.m. and return that same night. Special arrangements will be made with your individual Departments, if necessary, so that you may leave with us at that early hour.

Music: In substance, we shall repeat the program presented at Hunter College, viz:

- United Nations Charter Song
- Vive la Compagnie }French (Canada)
- Vive la Canadienne }
- Pastores a Belén.....Mexican
- Slavic Dance Song (Tancuj, Tancuj) ..Czechoslovakia
- Anu Banu Artsah }Hebrew
- Zum Gali Gali }
- Ma NormandieFrench
- ✓ Glädjens Blomster.....Swedish
- Song of the Fir Tree (Песня о елке) Russian
- Dry Bones.....American Negro Spiritual
