6 August 1954

My dear Mr. Borge,

May I express to you our deep appreciation for your acceptance of our invitation to appear at Headquarters September 10th on the occasion of our annual reception to the United Nations Secretariat. Your presence is enthusiastically anticipated by members from sixty nations.

I should deem it a privilege also if you would join me at a private dinner for our distinguished guests at six. Details of arrangements will be forwarded to you shortly.

Again, please accept our gratitude for your most valued assistance. I look forward to greeting you at Headquarters.

Sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjold,
Secretary-General

My dear Mr. Borge,

Let me tell you once more how very deeply I appreciate your generosity in bringing your incomparable gifts to the United Nations Staff Day Reception, Friday last, and in helping to make it such a great success.

It was a very special pleasure for me personally to meet you and to introduce you to the members of my staff.

Your performance was absolutely superb and we are all only too grateful for words for what you gave us of your personality and of your art. The Staff Day programme could not possibly have ended on a happier note. Thank you very much.

It was very nice indeed to meet you and to have you as my guest, and it is my hope to have an opportunity of welcoming you here again whenever it is convenient to you to visit us.

Very cordially yours,

Mr. Victor Borge,
Golden Theatre,
252 West 45th Street,
New York City.
