Sec. Gen.'s trip to Greece 1956

Jan. 5-9

Corresp. Sec. Gen. — Christian X. Palamas
(Perm. Repr. of Greece to UN)

5 January 1956

Dear Mr. Palamas,

My travel plans for my visit to your country have now been finalized.

I shall be arriving in Athens on Tuesday, 17 January, at 5.45 p.m. on British European Airlines, Flight 124 from London, and shall depart for Ankara on Thursday, 19 January, at 9.00 a.m. by special United Nations plane.

I shall be accompanied by Mr. Ahmed S. Bokhari, Under-Secretary for Public Information, Mr. George Ivan Smith, Director, United Nations Information Centre, London, and Mr. William Ranallo, my personal aide.

I should appreciate it if you would transmit this information to your Government.

I look forward with great pleasure to the opportunity of visiting your country and of meeting with the officials of your Government.

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjold
Secretary-General

9 January 1956

Dear Mr. Hammarskjold,

In answer to your letter of 5 January 1956, I take great pleasure in enclosing the tentative programme of your visit to Athens.

As my Government is anxious to complete the details of the programme as soon as possible and make the necessary arrangements, I should appreciate it if you would let me know at your earliest convenience of any modifications you would eventually deem desirable.

With most sincere wishes for a pleasant stay in my country,
I am,

Very sincerely yours,

s/ Christian X. Palamas
Permanent Representative of Greece
to the United Nations

His Excellency
Mr. Dag Hammarskjold
Secretary General of the United Nations
