Scientific Conf. on Atomic Energy

8 Dec.

1 letter from D.H. — to Dwight D. Eisenhower (President of the USA, The White House)

Palace National Assembly on the Peaceful Uses

I take great pleasure in sending you a copy of the first of the eleven volumes of the Proceedings of the International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, which has just arrived from the printer. The remaining fifteen volumes will be made available in the next three months and will also be sent to you.

The Conference, which was so kind to you, was, as you know, a great success and should serve as an important stimulus to the development of the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

With cordial good wishes,

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjöld

Dear Mr. President,

On the second anniversary of your address to the United Nations General Assembly on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, I take much pleasure in sending you a copy of the first of the sixteen volumes of the Proceedings of the International Conference on the Peaceful Uses of Atomic Energy, which has just arrived from the printer. The remaining fifteen volumes will become available in the next three months and will also be sent to you.

The Conference, which owes so much to you, was, as you know, a great success and should serve as an important stimulus to the acceleration of the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

With cordial good wishes.

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjöld

The Honorable Dwight D. Eisenhower, President of the United States of America,
The White House,
Washington, D.C.
