14 November 1960

Thanks for your much appreciated letter of 18 October.

Despite the buffetings from certain quarters
we shall continue in our efforts to promote peace and human welfare along the lines laid down in the United Nations Charter. We continue to believe that humanity generally, as well as the great majority of nations, support these objectives as well as the efforts to achieve them.

With kind personal regards.

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjold
