17 October 1960

Dear Byron,

I am grateful for your letter of 25 September with its encouraging message.

New chapters in the crisis have developed since you wrote the letter but despite them we cannot change our policy, based as it is upon adherence to the Charter and Security Council and General Assembly resolutions. The best hope that the world has in this crisis -- perhaps even though fragile -- is to stick firmly to the Charter and such impartial action as the United Nations can effectively take under it.

With warm regards to you and Mrs. Price.

Very sincerely yours,

Dag Hammarskjold
