CONCILIATION COMMISSION TO MEET IN LEOPOLDVILLE ON 3 JANUARY

Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold announced today that, following consultations with President Joseph Kasavubu, the Conciliation Commission -- organized by the Advisory Committee on the Congo under the resolution of the General Assembly of 20 September 1960 -- will arrive in Leopoldville on 3 January 1961. Three members, who are the presiding officers of the Conciliation Commission, are already in the Congo. The other members who have confirmed their willingness to participate will join them in the Congo for a first meeting of the Conciliation Commission in Leopoldville on the aforementioned date.
