1 letter from Andrew W. Cordier (Exec. Assist. to the sec. Gen)

- to Therese H. Moore (N. York)

29 March 1955

Dear Mrs. Moore,

The Secretary-General has asked me to acknowledge your letter of 27 February enclosing a photograph of the portrait painted by your husband, and to express to you his deep appreciation for the sentiments which you have expressed.

The Secretary-General, who, as you may know, is a very modest man, is not interested in a portrait of himself, nor does he feel that it should be placed on exhibit. He requests, however, that I convey to you both his every good wish for the continued success of your husband in his chosen field.

Very sincerely yours,

Andrew W. Cordier,
Executive Assistant to the Secretary-General

Mrs. Therese H. Moore,
43 East 61st Street,
New York 21, N.Y.
