Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 28 December 1954, in which you voice displeasure with the administering of travel arrangements by Thos. Cook & Son for your Delegation.

At the outset, I should like to emphasize my gratification for your consideration in devoting time to acquaint me with the attitude of your Delegation. Liaison such as this provides me with information of real value in taking corrective measures.

I should like to express my profound regret at the inconvenience occasioned members of your Delegation, and at the same time assure you that on my instructions, a full and complete investigation will be made with a view to preventing future difficulties.

Accept, Sir, the assurances of my highest consideration.
