Excellency,

I thank you for your letter of the 5th January giving me details of your plans for your visit to Pakistan. Since I extended to you personally the invitation of my Government, I have been in touch with our Foreign Minister on the subject of your visit and have only yesterday cabled Karachi that you are expected now to arrive in Karachi by U. N. plane on Sunday, January 29th at 6 p. m. instead of Saturday, January 28th by KLM 827 at 4-50 p. m., as per your earlier schedule. Other details of your tour and your party are already with my Government.

I hope to be able to give you soon a tentative programme of meetings and entertainment planned for you in Karachi. I expect to receive from Karachi shortly the programme for these engagements.

I wish you and your party a very pleasant and useful sojourn in Pakistan.

Very sincerely yours,

M. Mir Khan
