opportunities I have had to thank you for all the help and support by you and other members of your staff in connection with my my recent visit.

You all gave me invaluable help in a number of ways.
In particular, I would be grateful if you would tell Captain Whitaker and other officers of his crew how much I appreciate the personal attention given to me and my colleagues.

In addition, I would like your staff to know that the telegrams of support and loyalty sent to me in their name are very warmly appreciated.

I need hardly add that I am also delighted to have the opportunity of talking with you and having the benefit of your experience and good advice while I am in India.

With every good wish,

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjöld
