INTEROFFICE MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. Andrew W. Cordier, Executive Assistant to the Secretary-General,

FROM: A.M. Ashraf, Director, UNIC, Karachi/Pakistan

A.M. Ashraf

SUBJECT: Belongings of the Secretary-General and Party left at Karachi

Date 6 February, 1956.

C 3(5)56

H-1(11)56/2

On his departure from Karachi, the Secretary-General, Mr. George Ivan Smith and Mr. W. Ranallo left some of their belongings behind, instructing this office to forward the items to New York by our next pouch.

As you will notice, six envelopes and one packet contain files, books, photographs, souvenirs, presents etc., belonging to the Secretary-General. They may be kept at Headquarters and handed over to him on his arrival.

Two envelopes bear Mr. George Ivan Smith's address and should be repouched to London at your earliest convenience. They contain files and books.

The last two envelopes are for Mr. W. Ranallo, as indicated in the address. They contain his personal belongings and should be given to him on his arrival in New York.
