M. F. Payne (Administr. Officer UNMOGIP)

— to A. Cordier (Exec. Assist. to the Sec. Gen.)

UNITED NATIONS MILITARY OBSERVER GROUP
IN INDIA AND PAKISTAN

216D, Sale Road,
RAWALPINDI.

5 January 1956

Dear Mr. Cordier,

I am wondering whether any arrangements have been made to enable the Secretary-General to get duty-free liquor while he is in Bangalore in case he will have to throw an official party. Our PX is well stocked and if necessary we can load what is required on our plane before it leaves for Karachi. I believe we are the only UN body in the sub-continent which has the necessary privileges.

Many thanks for your letter the news in it was very well received here.

Yours sincerely,
