Dear Mr. Secretary-General,

Our colleagues in the various United Nations and Specialized Agencies Offices in New Delhi are anxious to have an opportunity of meeting you informally during your stay in New Delhi. The Government of India has suggested that the best time in your programme would be at 1 O'clock on Saturday, 4 February. We should all be delighted if you would do us the honour of having a private informal luncheon at the Delhi Gymkhana Club at 1 O'clock on that day. It would be a bachelor party and limited entirely to members of the International staffs and those travelling with you.

I am looking forward to meeting you in Bombay on 31 January.

Sincerely yours,

(James B. Orrick)

Since my return to Headquarters this is the first opportunity I have had of writing to thank you for the valuable assistance rendered by you and your staff during my recent visit to your area.

The harmony of contact between your office and local information media was reflected in the smooth working of all press and radio arrangements. I am also aware that you were called on to assist in other fields before and during my visit on programme arrangements.

On both scores I am very grateful to you and your staff, and it was a pleasure for me to be able to meet in person those who are doing such essential field work for the United Nations.

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjöld
