On my return to Headquarters, I would like to thank you most sincerely for conducting me on a tour of the Faridabad Community Project. It was an experience that I shall not forget.

I have written to three of the points we visited and for your information I am sending you copies of the letters herewith. I would be very grateful if you could also extend my thanks to Mr. Mangal Singh, the Executive Officer at Faridabad, whose briefing and personal attention enriched the visit and I would like Mr. Mohinder Singh Bedi, the Deputy Commissioner, to know how warmly I appreciated his courtesy in acting as an interpreter.

You will recall that our party was given an "unofficial" welcome by another village on the road between Kurali and Fatehpur Biloch. I have no note of its name, but I would be particularly grateful if the Village Council could be told how very sorry I was that a full programme made it impossible for me to spend more time with them in the village that one could say was so beautiful. I warmly appreciated the fact they went to so much trouble to express their interest in the United Nations and in my visit.

Thank you again for your part in arranging such a rewarding and stimulating visit.

Yours sincerely,

Dag Hammarskjold
